O'BOYLE LIKELY TO DIE IN JANUARY

Little Hope of Executive Clemency Entertained.

SISTER CHARGED WITH FORGERY

Claim Tint Ella Banks and Her Attorney Secured Property Belonging to Other Sisters by Forging Their Signatures." Injury to the Wasp.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) NEWPORT NEWS, VA., Dec. 6.-When Billy O'Boyle, the slayer of Alma Hamilton, was notified that the Supreme Court refused him a new trial and that he must die, he received the announcement with the same complaisance as when he said "thank you sir" to Judge Barham when he was sentenced a year ago. Official notice of the court's decision has not been received, and Judge Barham will not say when he will resentence O'Boyle, who will probably die late in January unless there is executive interference, which is not expected.

His counsel have not decided whether to apply for executive elemency. Not much is expected from Governor Tyler, and Governor-elect Montague, having been Attorney-General, would hardly be likely to pass on it.

THE WASP DAMAGED.

Lieutenant-Commander Charles C. Ro-gers, of the converted gunboat Wasp, has just forwarded to Collector Elliott en account of the collision his boat was in at 6:50 P. M., November 20th, with the British steamer Wilberforce. The Wasp was bound from Norfolk for Port Royal and collided with the Wilberforce near Thimble Light, suffering about $1,500 samage to her bow. The steamer had two plates bent.

of Mary Ella Ban Brooks and others. Ella Banks against Minnie

The plaintiff is suing for what she claims to be her share of the money for certain property sold by the court. The defendants are sisters to the plaintiff and claim that their sister and her law-yer have forged their names to a document transferring their right to the property to the former.

FORGERY CHARGED.

The property in question was left to the women by their father, with a mortgage for about half its value upon it. Mary Ella Banks, the oldest sister, claims that two of her sisters signed the paper con-veying their share of the property to her because they were unable to keep up the payments on the mortgage.

The sisters declare that Ella Banks and her attorney, Mr. N. B. Clark, forged their signatures to the paper, and that they had no intention of giving the property away.

Well-Known Young Richmond Man Wins a

Bride in Fluyanna (Special Dispatch to The Times.)

COLUMBIA, VA., Dec. 6 .- A fashionable marriage occurred at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon at "Point of Fork," the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Walker, when their sister, Miss Nina Davin, became the bride of Mr. John Twohig Temple, the son of Major R. H. Temple, of Richmond, Va. The parlors, halls, and dining-room of this noted and historical home were profusely decorated with palms, smilax, and chrysanthemums. The bridal party entered to the strains of Lohenghrin's wedding march, which was rendered with exquisite taste by Miss Edith Hatcher, The bride was attended by her maid of honor, Miss Evelyn Bell, of Wilming-She was gowned in a handsome tailored costume of tan cloth, with hat and gloves to match, and carried a show-er bouquet of bride's roses. The maid of honor wore an exquisite creation of white mousseline over taffeta, large Gainsbor-ough hat, and carried "La France" roses. The groom was attended by his best man, Mr. A. H. Davin, of New York. The Rev. Father Collins, of Richmond, 1erformed the ceremony.

Immediately afterwards an elegant re eption was held. Mr. and Mrs. Temple left at 4 P. M. on a special car for an extended tour of the principal Northern cities. On their return they will make their home in Richmond.

Among the many guests present from a were: Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Walker, of Richmond; Mrs. Calvin Satter-field and Miss Rose Satterfield, of Richmond; Mrs. Charles Selden and Miss Bessie Selden, Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. A. O. MISSION WORK IN NORTH CAROLINA

Destitution in the East-Shortage on Mission Collections Made

Up on the Spot.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., Dec. 6 .- At this morning's session of the Baptist State Convention the State mission work was taken up and discussed. Three reports were submitted, the first being on "Destitution in the East"; second, "Factory Missions," and third, "Education in

The first report showed that there was much destitution in the eastern part of the State, caused by extreme shortage in cotton and other crops. The last report told that the educational work had grown from one school with 150 students to nine schools, with 1,600 pupils, and property worth $40,000.

Rev. Livingston Johnson, secretary State Mission Board, made a stirring address on mission work in North Carolina. He reported a shortage of $500 in last year's collections. A stirring appeal was made to the convention to make the deficit good. Subscriptions (many of them being paid in cash) were taken to the amount of $627. Rev. Dr. McConnell, of Atlanta, secretary to the Southern Baptist Mission Board, made an inspiring address, urging the convention to go forward with a view to reaching the point when mission-aries will not be needed.

At this afternoon's session an encouraging report was made on the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary at Louisville, Ky. This was followed by a dis-cussion on Sunday-schools and their Malicious Shooting.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)

LEESBURG, V.A., Dec. 6.—The hearing of the case against Robert Redman, for maliciously shooting George Moss, took place here yesterday before Justice Harrison, and resulted in the acquittal of special control of spli-dec. rison, and resulted in the acquittal of the accused on the ground of self-defense.

The affray occurred at Mountain Gap.
Sunday evening, November 24th, and the evidence was that Moss had been compelled to leave Redman's house, but had returned in a short while and fired a shot in the yard. Redman, securing a gun, went out, and was accosted by Moss, who immediately fired; Redman also fired almost at the same time. Though his clothes were riddled, Redman escaped frjury.

Moss, however, received a considerable portion of the charge in the face, and is still in a serious condition.

No Danger of a Strike.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)

BLUEFFIELD. W. VA., Dec. 6.—There is to danger of the miners in this flat top field going on a strike. There was a meeting held this morning, at which the agiators talked, but received very little encouragement. The miners will work as long as there is work to do. They will not stop work, it is said, until the operators stop them by discharge.

The western shipments from this field are good and the constwise trade is looking up. The prospects were never brighter for a good winter's business; and the miners are too sensible to ruin it.

DAY IN POLICE COURT.

Blasting, it is Alleged, Wrecked Houses in Pine Street. There was enough variety before Jus-tice Crutchfield, of the Police Court, yesterday to keep the session from being dull. One of the cases which was called, but was not settled, was a blasting case, in which divers and sundry stones had been scattered over the neighborhood of the foot of Pine Street; another was the charge of stealing household furnishings entered against three persons. This was settled. Outside of these was the usual number of plain and fancy "drunks."

Mr. S. P. Clay, a contractor, was the man who had been blasting. From the evidence of persons living near it seemed that houses had been partially wrecked and lives endangered by the work now going on at the foot of the Street. Mr. Clay had been summoned to court, but failed to appear, and the case went over until to-day. Justice Crutchfield said that this was against the city ordinance. Martha Parsons, Ralph Parsons and Willie Coleman were defendants in a case brought by Martha Harris, who charged that they had stolen household articles from her home. Martha carsos said the house from which the articles had been taken was the home of her daughter, who had died, and the t-ree defendants were discrarged. Charles Colquitt, a white boy, ran away from the Bethany Home, but owing to a misunderstanding the case went over

Health for Declining Years

I have used your Wine of Cardui and have found it all you claimed in taking me safely through the change of life. I have recommended it to all my friends. You may refer people to me, for I cannot say enough in its praise. I also used Thedford's Black-Draught at the same time and it is splendid for the liver and constinated bowels.

Mrs. N. F. BOWEN.

You may pass through the change of life without distress. The great trouble is women do not prepare for this transition. When a woman allows menstrual irregularities to run all her life she pays the penalty at the turn of life and it is severe. You need not pay that penalty. If you are nearing the age of 43, get a bottle of and begin taking three doses a day, according to directions. This medi-cine will regulate the menses and stop the dreadful drains which undermine womanly health. It enables a woman to pass through this change to a beautiful and healthy old age. Do not allow the change of life to come upon you when you are suffering. If you do, you will find an early grave. Isn't it better to safeguard your health by taking Wine of Cardui?

Wine of Cardul is a good medicine. I never knew it to fail. W. M. JOHNSON.
